4 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
5 WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
6 AT SEATTLE

7 UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

8 Plaintiff,

9 v.

10 DANIEL NIX,

11 Defendants.

CASE NO. CR17-105RSL

ORDER ON REVIEW OF SECOND
MOTION FOR RECUSAL

12 On June 18, 2018, Defendant Daniel Nix filed a Motion seeking recusal of the Honorable 13 Robert S. Lasnik in this matter. Dkt. #87. On June 22, 2018, Judge Lasnik issued an Order 14 declining to recuse himself and, in accordance with this Court's Local Rules, referred that 15 decision to the Chief Judge for review. Dkt. #90; LCR 3(e). On June 29, 2018, the undersigned 16 issued an Order on Review affirming the denial of recusal. Dkt. #94. This matter comes before 17 the Court on Defendant's second Motion for Recusal. Dkt. # 129.

18 A judge of the United States shall disqualify himself in any proceeding in which his 19 impartiality "might reasonably be questioned." 28 U.S.C. § 455(a). Federal judges also shall 20 disqualify themselves in circumstances where they have a personal bias or prejudice concerning 21 a party or personal knowledge of disputed evidentiary facts concerning the proceeding. 28
22 U.S.C. § 455(b)(1). Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 144, "whenever a party to any proceeding in a 23 district court makes and files a timely and sufficient affidavit that the judge before whom the 24

1 matter is pending has a personal bias or prejudice either against him or in favor of any adverse 2 party, such judge shall proceed no further therein, but another judge shall be assigned to hear 3 such proceeding.” “[A] judge's prior adverse ruling is not sufficient cause for recusal.” United 4 States v. Studley, 783 F.2d 934, 939 (9th Cir. 1986); see also Taylor v. Regents of Univ. of Cal., 5 993 F.2d 710, 712 (9th Cir. 1993) (“To warrant recusal, judicial bias must stem from an 6 extrajudicial source.”).

7 Mr. Nix’s new grounds for recusal can be described as: a) baseless accusations that Judge 8 Lasnik and the Court “have participated in the issuing and trading of undisclosed counterfeit 9 securities,” Dkt. #129 at 2, and b) accusations that in-court statements or rulings from Judge 10 Lasnik reveal improper bias or impartiality. The Court finds that the first set of accusations are 11 without factual support and meritless. The second set of accusations are like those previously 12 addressed by this Court; Mr. Nix again essentially argues Judge Lasnik cannot be impartial 13 because of prior adverse rulings. For example, Mr. Nix points to potential rulings on motions in 14 limine and Judge Lasnik’s in-court statements critiquing Mr. Nix’s legal arguments, refusing to 15 entertain frivolous objections, and otherwise attempting to control the flow of proceedings in the 16 courtroom. Such statements are not sufficient cause for recusal. See Studley, supra. In any 17 event, Judge Lasnik’s statements do not create an appearance of impartiality. Mr. Nix’s 18 remaining arguments are factually unsupported or legally baseless. Mr. Nix presents nothing to 19 reasonably question Judge Lasnik’s impartiality.

20 Accordingly, the Court hereby finds and ORDERS that Judge Lasnik’s second refusal to 21 recuse himself from this matter is AFFIRMED.
